

(December 2, 2015)

In order to further improve the lines of communication and to respond to the concerns between the National VA Council and you our members, I have established a National VA Council Briefing. This NVAC Briefing will bring you the latest news and developments within DVA and provide you with the current status of issues this Council is currently addressing. I believe that this NVAC Briefing will greatly enhance the way in which we communicate and the way in which we share new information, keeping you better informed.

Alma L. Lee
National VA Council, President

~~~~~
In This Briefing: MyVA Quarterly Update
~~~~~

The MyVA Quarterly Update newsletter contains a variety of related stories, updates, and links to keep you informed on the transformation. For more in-depth information, visit the MyVA.va.gov internal site. It hosts links to resources, ideas for how employees can help with the transformation, and videos of VA leaders and employees from around the country. Watch the video that highlights some of our strategic partnerships and learn more about how you can provide your ideas in the Idea House to eliminate non-productive reports, approvals, meetings, measurements, and policies.

A successful transformation can only happen with the efforts of our employees, many of whom are Veterans themselves. VA employees come to work every day at our hospitals, regional offices, cemeteries, and thousands of other locations to provide quality care and services to Veterans and their families. MyVA is working hard to give them the tools, training, and skills they need and deserve to succeed.

Robert D. Snyder