

(February 11, 2016)

In order to further improve the lines of communication and to respond to the concerns between the National VA Council and you our members, I have established a National VA Council Briefing. This NVAC Briefing will bring you the latest news and developments within DVA and provide you with the current status of issues this Council is currently addressing. I believe that this NVAC Briefing will greatly enhance the way in which we communicate and the way in which we share new information, keeping you better informed.

Alma L. Lee

National VA Council, President

~~~~~

In This Briefing: Diversity@Work newsletter: February 2016 edition

~~~~~

Office of Diversity and Inclusion	VA		U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs
To all subscribers and friends: The February 2016 issue of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs' (VA's) Diversity@Work newsletter is available for download and includes information on: Have you heard about Diversity News? See it online!

- Retaliation
- MyCareer@VA: 3 Tips for Effective Teamwork Across Different Locations
- Barrier Analysis Training and Other Training Opportunities
- Policy Alerts
- And much more...

The newsletter also includes information on Black History Month and other observances, special emphasis programs, and activities.

Enjoy the newsletter, share it with staff and colleagues, and be sure to send us your feedback.

To view the newsletter online, you will need the free Acrobat Reader software. For more information, go to <http://www.adobe.com>, but always consult your IT manager before downloading new software.

Sincerely,
The Office of Diversity and Inclusion
U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Diversity@Work is part of VA's ongoing effort to increase awareness of diversity and to promote a flexible and inclusive work environment. For more information, please visit the Office of Diversity and Inclusion Web site at <http://www.diversity.va.gov>. To unsubscribe, please reply to this e-mail.